

High-Flying, High-Level basketball coming to Erie, PA!

Erie, PA – Enter the Keystone Academy Kings, a national high school team will compete independently against other high caliber Prep and National High School Programs!

The team is based out of Erie, PA and will be competing with a 30+ game season. Home games will be scheduled in Erie, yet the team is hoping to host some highlight games in the legendary Hammermill Center.

Keystone Academy has publicly announced its Head Coach for the inaugural season. A familiar face in seasoned veteran coach Shannon Pullium will be at the helm. Shannon released this statement regarding the opportunity, “I am extremely excited about this opportunity. I am getting back into High School coaching at the national level. This Academy will give student – athletes the opportunity to showcase their talents against elite competition.”

Keystone Athletic Academy

Keystoneathleticacademy.org

info@keystoneathleticacademy.org